10. Shri DK Tiwari, Assistant Statistical Officer, CMO (Gas Rahat), Bhopal also attended the meeting.

Prof Manoj Pandey, Director, BMHRC welcomed all the members of the Committee and briefed the members on the purpose of the meeting.

He explained, this Committee is formed with reference to the meeting held under the chairmanship of secretary, DHR on March 14, 2016. In this meeting Secretary, DHR suggested to constitute a committee for developing Common Referral System for the various Medical Units under the BMHRC and BGTRRD to ensure that the gas victims are referred to appropriate centers for proper diagnosis and treatment.

Director, BMHRC asked for suggestions from all the committee members to develop Common Referral System. Dr. Sanjay Saxena, CMHO, Gas Rahat and Dr. SK Mathur, Superintendent, Kamla Nehru Hospital suggested a unique ID for all Gas victim patients. He said that Gas victim claim number can be used as their unique ID. All the members present unanimously agreed to this suggestion and added that apart from Claim number, the Case number and BMHRC ID should also be used as Unique ID.

Dr. SK Mathur said that Kamla Nehru Hospital is using a form to refer the patients to other Gas Rahat Hospitals. With some minor changes, all hospitals can use this form as a referral form. Prof Manoj Pandey said that we can add Gas victims claim number, case number and BMHRC ID in this form and it will be used by all hospitals treating gas victims.

PROF. MANOJ PANDEY
DIRECTOR
BHOHAL MEMORIAL HOSPITAL
& RESEARCH CENTRE, BHOHAL

Prof Manoj Pandey said that there should be a system so that all health centres of BMHRC can refer patients directly to Gas Rahat Hospitals. Similarly, all Gas Rahat Hospitals and Dispensaries of Gas Rahat Department can refer their patients directly to BMHRC. Prof Manoj Pandey suggested to prepare a list of hospitals where Specialists / Super specialists Doctors in different departments are available so that Gas Victim patients can refer accordingly.

Prof Manoj Pandey, CMHO (Gas Rahat) and other members of committee requested Mr. Abraham Itty, Technical Director, NIC to add a category 'Name of the Hospital to be Referred' in the software developed by them. Mr Itty has assured that he will find a possibility to do so.

The meeting ended with vote of thanks.
